Employment offer letter

Dear Eeswara Chandra Chamarthi, we are delighted to offer you employment with our company. As you know, our company specializes in providing IT solutions and services for our clients. While we have already sent you an employment agreement which outlines our employer/employee relationship, we would like to provide a summary of what your current employment with our company entails.

As a W-2 employee of eDataWorld LLC, we would like to offer you a position as IT Analyst at an Hourly rate of US $69.3 on W2. This full-time position requires a bachelor's degree in Computer Science as well as a firm understanding of Siebel Administrator skills. The duration of this assignment is likely to start date: 7/1/2013.

While you are working at client site, we would like to remind you that we are the only party that can hire, fire, promote or re-assign you to another project. Furthermore, we reserve the right to assign additional work should we have the need. If you should have any questions regarding your work or should any issues arise, you are to immediately contact our office before going to any other parties so that we can either answer the question or resolve the issue. If you should require any equipment or supplies to complete your project, please send us a request so that we can furnish this items for you.

If you should have any questions about your employment with our company, please do not hesitate to contact us immediately. Welcome aboard!

Regards
